ABOUT WELTHUNGERHILFE

Welthungerhilfe is one of the largest private aid organizations in Germany and has no political or religious affiliations. It was one of the first global initiatives in the fight against hunger when it was founded in 1962 as the German chapter of the Freedom from Hunger campaign, which was led by the UN Food and Agriculture Organization (FAO). From rapid disaster relief to reconstruction and long-term development cooperation projects with local partners, we provide assistance from a single source. Since its foundation, WHH has provided 2.25 billion EUR of funding for more than 6,600 projects in 70 countries.

Welthungerhilfe has been active in Somaliland (Awdal, Woqooyi, and Galbeed) since 2001 and has recently expanded into South/Central Somalia in 2022 through cooperation with local implementing partners. Whilst our strategic focus is on building resilience and strengthening local humanitarian leadership, our 2023-2024 activities will also seek to respond to the present drought crisis through humanitarian relief. Welthungerhilfe has active projects in Galmudug, Hirshabelle, and South West of Somalia. Humanitarian emergency assistance, Food Security, Resilience programs-agriculture, WASH and infrastructure rehabilitation and infrastructure restoration are the core areas of our work in South Central Somalia

About the project

Welthungerhilfe (WHH), through its local implementing partner GREDO, has been delivering nutrition interventions in 33992 communities, including 5 health facilities, covering 10636 children below five years and 1342 pregnant and lactating women (PLW) in Baidoa. The project runs from January 1, 2024, to December 31, 2024. And was funded by a private donation, The project expands the Nutrition in Emergencies (NiE) to provide essential nutrition services for displaced and flood-affected communities in Baidoa improved nutritional status of children and PLWs in Baidoa through direct treatment of acute malnutrition and enhanced capacity of the government and nutrition cluster partners to deliver quality NiE programs.

Purpose/Objective

To contribute to the reduction of the mortality and morbidity rates for children under the age of 5 years and PLW in Baidoa.

15. Rights and obligations:

I. Participation

Any company with the necessary financial and economic capacities to carry out the required service may participate in this restricted invitation to tender. At the request of WHH, the bidder must provide evidence of its expertise, reliability, and performance.

Participation in this award procedure is free of charge. However, no mutual legal claims can be derived from participation until the Contract concludes.

II. Confidentiality

In this context, the contracting authority sends tender documents to the Partner. On the sending of the tender documents and, if applicable, subsequent discussions and the conclusion of a contract, confidential information about the contracting authority may be disclosed to the Partner. Against this background, the contracting parties agree on the following:

The Partner undertakes to treat all confidential information received from the Client in the context of the tender and any discussions as strictly confidential, including vis-à-vis third parties.

This agreement shall enter into force upon receipt of the tender documents and shall remain in force for the duration of the discussions, any future cooperation, and for two years after termination of the discussions or cooperation. Upon termination of the agreement, the parties must return any documents disclosed to the other party without request.

III. Bid opening, examination, and evaluation of the bids

In the non-public procedure, WHH will sift through incoming bids and evaluate them according to the evaluation matrix (point 5).

16. Payment and supporting documents

(1) Payment of submitted invoices by WHH does not imply acceptance of Goods or Services or any related work under the Contract. Unless otherwise specified in the Contract, the following provisions will apply concerning payment and supporting documents.

(2) WHH shall generally make payment through banking channels to Contractor within 30 days upon receipt of the following documents and any other documents/reports that may be specified in the Contract, to be sent directly to Deutsche Welthungerhilfe e.V., Procurement Department, Friedrich-Ebert-Strasse 1, 53173 Bonn, Germany, upon submitting a commercial invoice with proper banking instructions.

(3) In case of installation of service provision by the Contractor, the payment terms will negotiate case by case.

(4) WHH will make payment to the bank account indicated by the Contractor in its invoice, providing that the bank account is in the Contractor's name and located in its country of residence. Any request for payment to a bank account other than that of the Contractor or a bank other than one located in the Contractor's country of residence must be specified and justified when making its offer.

(5) WHH may withhold payment, in whole or in part, without liability and prejudice to any other of its rights or remedies under the Contract, should the Contractor fail to provide the documents required by Article 26 of the Welthungerhilfe Terms and Conditions for International Procurement of Goods and Services. Alternatively, as otherwise specified in the Contract or if the Contractor fails to perform or comply with its obligations under the Contract, including the warranties for the Goods outlined in Article 10 of the said terms and conditions.

17. LIABILITY, PENALTY FOR DELAY, NONCONFORMING GOODS OR SERVICES, SHORTFALLS

1 According to statutory legal provisions, the Contractor shall be liable for its negligent breach of duty and negligent breach of duty by its legal representatives or vicarious agents.

(1) The Contractor recognizes that the Contract concerns a provision of Services where "time is of the essence" and that failure to provide the Services by the scheduled date(s) or following the quantities and/or quality specified in the Contract may cause irreparable harm to WHH.

(2) Therefore, if the Contractor culpably defaults in remedying a defect or making a delivery - fully and timely -, WHH shall have the right to request lump-sum damages due to default for the defective resp. late delivery without further proof of damage, of 0.2 % of the net remuneration agreed for the defective resp. late service for each period of default of 1 working day (Monday to Saturday) but at most 5 % of the agreed net remuneration for the defective resp. late delivery of service. However, the Contractor shall have the opportunity to prove to WHH that WHH has incurred no damage or materially lesser damage.

(3) The remedy in Article 18 (3) of the Welthungerhilfe terms and conditions for international procurement of goods and services is without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to WHH, including cancellation, for Contractor's non-performance or breach of any term or condition of the Contract.

18. Terms and Conditions of Contract / Purchase Order

The Contract may not be awarded to candidates or tenderers which, during the procurement procedure:

A. are subject to a conflict of interests;

B. are guilty of misrepresentation in supplying the information required by the Contracting Authority as a condition of participation in the contract procedure or failing to supply this information.

The granted contract/purchase order for the procurement of the stipulated goods is supposed to involve the application of the "Welthungerhilfe Terms and Conditions for International Procurement of Goods and Services." which is provided as the Annex II of this tender invitation. Therefore, unless otherwise stipulated in this document or purchase contract, the terms of this Annex II shall apply in full.
