

Call for Expression of Interest for Local Partnership with Human Appeal in Somalia and Somaliland On Emergency and Development Response

HA/SOM/TOR/005/2024

About Human Appeal

Human Appeal is an international non-profit organisation working across the globe to strengthen humanity's fight against poverty, social injustice and natural disaster. Through the provision of immediate relief and the establishment of self-sustaining development programmes, we aim to invest in real, effective solutions. We work year-round to establish healthcare, education, and livelihood programmes that pave the way for empowered, self-serving communities. We also provide food, medical aid, and disaster relief during emergencies, a critical intervention that saves lives.

Human Appeal has been operating in Somalia since 2016, initially with pilot projects, and officially established its country office in March 2017. Since then, the organization has been dedicated to supporting affected populations and individuals in need across humanitarian and development sectors including Food Security and Livelihoods (FSL), Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene (WASH), Health, Shelter/NFIs, Nutrition, Protection, and Orphan & Child Welfare. With the expertise of highly skilled local and international teams, Human Appeal is capable of accessing some of the most remote and hard-to-reach places in the world, providing vital assistance to communities during their most vulnerable times.

Background of the Eoi

The escalating impact of complex emergencies presents a grave and imminent threat to the lives of millions of children and adolescents. The resulting consequences include a substantial increase in the number of individuals who fully depend on humanitarian aid, further exacerbating existing crises and perpetuating the cycle of poverty.

Horn of Africa region and in periocular Somalia has been grappling with a considerable influx of internally displaced persons, primarily driven by prolonged conflict, pervasive insecurity, and the devastating effects of climate-related disasters. Consequently, the humanitarian needs within the population have doubled, rendering them increasingly susceptible to widespread food insecurity, forced displacement, and the loss of livelihoods. Regrettably, these circumstances have impeded the timely provision of essential life-saving assistance to children, consequently intensifying their exposure to various protection risks.

In recognition of the mounting demand for humanitarian assistance, the urgent need to address coverage gaps, and the unmet needs of the affected population, HA Somalia is steadfast in its commitment to expand its ongoing humanitarian efforts. The organization aims to enhance its impact and reach in critical sectors such as Child Protection, Cash Assistance, Gender, Water, Sanitation and Hygiene, and Nutrition. To accomplish this, HA Somalia is actively seeking expressions of interest (EOIs) from local organizations operating in both Somalia and Somaliland. Through strategic partnerships and collaborations, HA Somalia aims to leverage the expertise and resources of these local entities to further strengthen the effectiveness and sustainability of their humanitarian interventions. Together, they aspire to mitigate the adverse effects of complex emergencies and ensure that the most vulnerable children and adolescents receive the vital support they urgently require.
