4. Selection Criteria (Qualitative Criteria)

- 4.1. Evaluation points will be awarded based on the following criteria:

- a. A comprehensive and clear breakdown of prices must be shown as part of the financial offer – any transport fees, taxes, customs charges, component parts, packing fees etc. must be shown separately if any. Prices offered will be evaluated on a full cost basis (including all fees and taxes).

Marks for cost will be awarded on the inverse proportion principle (shown below):

Score vendor = maximum score 50% (price min / price vendor).

- b. As part of the evaluation, consideration will be given to the bidder's plan for engaging the local community residing near the project site. Scoring will reflect the percentage of local workforce participation, with higher scores awarded for greater involvement. Bidders should provide details on their approach, including estimated local employment percentages and any community engagement initiatives.
 - c. The evaluation will assess the bidder's experience in completing similar projects (construction standard latrines and disability latrines) considering the scope, complexity, and scale of previous work. Supporting documents such as contracts, completion certificates, and client references may be required to verify experience. Please fill schedule 25.
 - d. The evaluation will assess the bidder's financial capacity. Active bank statement with recent transactions. Attachment of bank statement is required.
 - e. The expected timeframe for the supplier to complete the delivery. The timeline should be realistic and should be in line with the technical person's estimate. Methodology and Work Plan: Assesses the proposed approach, including the schedule, project management techniques, and innovative solutions.
 - f. The evaluation will assess the bidder's proposed waste management approach based on its effectiveness, environmental sustainability, and compliance with regulations. The plan should outline waste segregation, disposal, recycling, and hazardous waste handling while demonstrating efforts to minimize environmental impact.
- 4.2. PAH retains the authority to revise its selection of the successful tenderer in cases where contract negotiation or finalization is unreasonably protracted. Additionally, PAH reserves the right to terminate the tender process at any point before the contract is signed.
